(g) Lack of a meaningful nexus between development [ar]d research.

It is of the view that a determined initiative on the part of Government is essential to create a catalytic model which can be replicated. The Committee recommends for the consideration of Government a concrete operational model, in which a centralised autonomous agency, working under the umbrella of a reputed institute of technical education sucb as an Indian Institute of Technology, will perform some direct functions apart from assisting in the development of a supporting infrastructural base. A project profile fo_r such a Footwear Design and Development Institute is appended as Appendix Vfl. The project will involve an investment of Rs. 9.5 crores and an employment of 2900. It will be completed in four j phases.

1.4.2 In the context of the recommendation regarding FDDI. it will lie necessary to replicate this operational I strategy in different States where nodal agencie.; be entrusted with the task of co-ordinating the development of the six supporting functions enumerated above leaving the direct functions to be performed by FDDI alone.

1.4.3 Government may consider enlargement of the scope of the proposed Institute to include other leather goods, sucb. as garments, handbags, gloves, etc.

1.4.4 Liberal assistance from MDA should be made available, fn foreign exchange, for individual brand promotion abroad.

1.4.5 The list ol: raw materials required for production of intermediates for use in the export production of footwear should be included in Annexure VI to Appendix 19 of thi Import Policy. This list is given at Annexure VL

1.5 Institutional Coordination.

The Committee recognises the existence of a number of agencies which have been set up by Government such as STC, BLC, State Leather Development Corporations, CLRI, CLE, CFTCs KVIC, etc. to service varying interests. Within the Government itself, there are several Ministries which deal with different aspects of the industry. It is recommended that:

(a) Government should examine the performance of these organisations with respect to the rationale of their creation and take remedial ;iction to avoid duplication and ensure coordination. A_s a first step, it is recommended that the Department of Industrial Development should $examin_e$ the extent t_0 which the State Leather Development Corporations and BLC have served their objectives.

(b) The role of a harmonising agency could be played by the creation of a statutory All India Leather Board on the analogy of other commodity Boards by integrating on_e Or more of the existing organisations. Such a Board could also coordinate the activities of Ihe institutions whose continuance may be consideied necessary.
